

launchvic MEDIA RELEASE

3 November, 2016

LaunchVic supports inaugural Collab /Collide Fintech Summit

LaunchVic is pleased to be supporting Collab / Collide 2016 - FinTech Australia's inaugural national FinTech Summit - that is launching in Melbourne today.

The summit, held over the next two days, will bring stakeholders from the FinTech ecosystem together, including startups, established corporates, Government and Regulators.

Ahmed Fahour, Chair of LaunchVic stated "We are delighted to have provided funding for the inaugural Collab / Collide FinTech Summit.

"The finance sector is rapidly evolving, and FinTech is emerging as a key strength of the diverse Victorian start-up ecosystem.

"Our support for Collab / Collide 2016 demonstrates LaunchVic's value to the local startup ecosystem."

Collab / Collide 2016 aims to be a leading conference networking event for the Australian FinTech Industry, promoting innovative FinTech practices to a broad audience.

The summit will explore a broad range of topics including open data, Blockchain and digital currencies, digital and robo-advice, alternative finance and payments

Media Contact: Kate Cornick, LaunchVic 0402 852 801 kate@launchvic.org